

UNFCCC COP21 Side-event
Consumption based Accounting and Policies: towards designing a roadmap post-Paris 2015

Monday, 30 November 2015, 12.30-14.00
EU Pavilion Room:

Chair Henry Derwent, Climate Strategies

12.30-12.35 Welcome: Introduction to the concept of consumption based-accounting and policies (Arnold Tukker, TNO)

Accounting

12.35-12.45 Presentation: The empirical basis for consumption-based accounting (Richard Wood, NTNU)

12.45-12.55 Presentation: Generating global scenarios to assess the impacts of consumption accounting (Annela Anger- Kraavi, Cambridge Econometrics)

12.55-13.05 Comment: Creating a robust methodology for consumption-based accounting: (Jan Minx, Hertie School of Governance, TBC)

Policies

13.05- 13.15 Presentation: Consumption-oriented policies: what opportunities for changing consumption (Michael Grubb, University College London)

13.15-13.25 Comment: Environmental policy stringency and CO₂ embodied in trade: research insights (Kirsten Wiebe or Nick Johnston, OECD)

13.25-13.30 Comment: Chinese Perspective (Jiahua Pan, Director Chinese Academy of Social Sciences)

13.30-14.00 Questions/Discussion